Position Announcement

Posting Closing:  July 20, 2020, 5:00 PM

Job Title:   Director of Finance

Salary:   DOQ

To apply please send resume and references to recruitment@pchawa.org

Questions may be directed to Charlie Gray, Executive Director. Email is preferred: cgray@pchawa.org. Phone: 253.620.5426

Job Description:

PIERCE COUNTY HOUSING AUTHORITY
DIRECTOR OF FINANCE
Updated May 28, 2020

I. PURPOSE OF POSITION

This is an executive management classification in which the incumbent oversees, directs, and participates in all activities of the Finance Department, including short- and long-term planning, policy development and administration, and implementing accounting, financial management and reporting, budget, audit, and treasury functions

This position provides for a wide variety of independent decision-making, within legal mandates, general policy and regulations and exercises general direction and supervision over management, supervisory, professional, technical, and administrative staff through subordinate levels of supervision.

Provides leadership to the departments to enable department managers to effectively and efficiently manage department budgets and maximize available resources while providing effective management internal controls; coordinates assigned activities with government officials, outside agencies, and the public as assigned.
Finance Director provides highly responsible and complex professional support to the Executive Director and Deputy Executive Director in areas of expertise. Supports and facilitates execution of specific fiduciary responsibilities of the Board of Directors. Assists Executive and Deputy in executing the long-term vision for the Agency under the direction of the Board of Commissioners.

II. SUPERVISION RECEIVED AND EXERCISED

Reports directly to the Deputy Director. Administrative direction may also be provided to Finance Director through Executive Team, of which the Deputy Director is a member. Finance Director prepares reports for the Board and assists in facilitating access to the authorized Board Finance Committees for Internal Control review.

III. ESSENTIAL JOB FUNCTIONS/DUTIES

- Plans, organizes, leads, and directs the services and activities of the Finance Department and all its programs, activities, and services including accounting, financial management and reporting, budget, audit, and treasury functions.

- Participates on the Executive team in the implementation of the strategic vision including fostering and cultivating stakeholder relationships on city, state, and national levels, as well as assist in identifying new funding opportunities and drafting of prospective programmatic budgets and determining cost effectiveness of prospective service delivery.

- Develops the department’s strategic plan and manages the development and implementation of goals, objectives, policies, procedures, and work standards for the department; assigns department staff as required to optimize the efficiency and effectiveness of the overall department’s performance.

- Participates in the developments of the agency’s strategic plan as a member of the Executive and Leadership teams.

- Selects, trains, motivates, and evaluates assigned staff, mentors and works with staff to correct deficiencies, engages in succession planning and leadership development, and implements discipline and termination procedures.

- Contributes to the overall quality of the department’s and Agency’s service provision by developing, reviewing, and implementing policies and procedures to meet legal requirements and Agency needs; continuously monitors and evaluates the efficiency and effectiveness of service delivery methods and procedures; assesses and monitors the distribution of work, support systems, and internal reporting relationships; identifies opportunities for improvement; directs the implementation of change.

- Directs and coordinates the preparation of analyses and recommendations regarding financial policy issues and long-range plans; advises the Deputy Executive Director and Executive Director regarding financial policy issues, programs, and projects to meet Agency, affiliate, community, and client needs.

- Implements directives and policies from the Board, Deputy Director, and Executive Director; provides guidance to other department heads and managers to coordinate and implement assigned programs and projects; meets with other department heads to identify and resolve organizational and operational problems within departments and across departmental lines; ensures the successful operation of programs and projects.

- Through subordinate staff, develops, directs, and monitors the preparation of the department and Agency budgets and implements the Board-approved budget; approves the forecast of funds needed for operations; and monitors the preparation of a wide variety of financial statements and reports; conducts studies and projections and prepares reports on various financial and program and affiliate entities' financial data.

- Provides tools for strategic planning and presents possible utilization of the various types of financial resources for Agency programs, projects, and services.

- Develops cash management and investment plans for all funds of the Agency and its affiliate entities; directs and monitors investment activities in accordance with the Agency’s Investment Policy and in compliance with federal and state rules and regulations.

- Leads and manages with the oversight of the Executive Team various external and internal audit processes, with the oversight of the Executive Team ensures audits are conducted effectively and efficiently through interdepartmental cooperation and management coordination.

- Ensures all financial and budget operations, procedures, and internal controls are in compliance with Agency policies, Generally Accepted Accounting Principles (GAAP), Financial Accounting Standards Board (FASB) and Governmental Accounting Standards Board (GASB) standards, and Department of Housing and Urban Development (HUD) guidelines.

- Manages the analytical review of all financial reports including Agency-wide monthly and annual variance, tax credit properties, housing program,
HUD, and investment, budget, and cash reports, for accuracy, validity, reliability, alignment with program objectives, and in compliance with policies, standards, and regulations.

- Represents the Agency as assigned in meetings with governmental agencies, community groups, and various business, professional, educational, regulatory, and legislative organizations.

- Conducts a variety of Agency-wide organizational and operational studies and investigations; recommends modifications to programs, policies, and procedures as appropriate.

- Prepares, reviews, and presents monthly reports and memos on recommendations for Board of Commissioners or affiliate entity boards’ actions; attends and participates in professional group meetings; stays abreast of new trends and innovations in the field of finance programs and operations related to area of assignment.

- Monitors changes in laws, regulations, and technology that may affect Agency or departmental operations; implements policy and procedural changes as required, meets all agency and regulatory timelines.

- Ensures all record-keeping tasks are properly performed in accordance with HUD’s regulations, as well as GAAP.

- Prepares and submits all HUD and REAC, financial statements and required financial information throughout the year and at the year-end, within stipulated deadlines.

- Prepares, reviews, and presents staff reports, various management and information updates, and reports on special projects as assigned by the Executive Director.

- Performs other duties as assigned.

IV. QUALIFICATIONS

A. Education and Experience.

Preferred: A Master’s degree from an accredited college or university with major coursework in accounting, finance, or business administration, or a closely related field, and ten (10) years of experience in a progressively responsible financial leadership role, accounting, financial reporting, including seven (7) years of supervisory experience.

B. Licenses and Certifications.

Certified Public Accountant licensure preferred.
C. Bonding.
Must be acceptable and qualify for bonding to the extent required by the Housing authority's bonding insurance carrier. A full background investigation, including a consumer credit report will be required.

D. Other Qualifications.
Must be able to verify that physical condition is satisfactory for the requirement of the position. Employees must demonstrate the ability to satisfactorily perform the essential functions of the job, with or without reasonable accommodations for disabled individuals as defined within the Americans With Disabilities Act of 1990, as amended.

V. PHYSICAL DEMANDS
The physical demands and work environment characteristics described here are representative of those that an employee must handle to successfully perform the essential functions of this job. The job’s activities occur primarily in indoor office settings:

A. Occasional standing, walking, sitting, using hands to finger, handle, or feel objects, tools or controls; reaching with hands and arms; climbing stairs; balancing; finger (digital) dexterity; stooping, kneeling, crouching or crawling; talking or hearing; occasionally lifting and/or moving up to 25 pounds;

B. Close vision, distance vision, peripheral vision, depth perception, and the ability to adjust focus;

C. While performing the duties of this job, the employee is exposed to weather conditions prevalent at the time;

D. The noise level in the work environment is usually moderate.

VI. KNOWLEDGE OF:

- Administrative principles and practices, including goal setting, program development, implementation, and evaluation, and supervision of staff, either directly or through subordinate levels of supervision.

- Agency-wide administrative practices and general principles of risk management related to the functions of the assigned area.

- Organization and management practices as applied to the analysis and evaluation of projects, programs, policies, procedures, and operational needs.
• Principles and practices of employee supervision, including work planning, assignment, review and evaluation, discipline, and the training of staff in work procedures.

• Principles and practices of comprehensive financial program development, implementation, and management.

• Accounting, auditing, financial analysis, and budget principles and procedures and their application to a variety of accounting transactions and problems.

• Financial statements and elements (such as, but not limited to assets, liabilities, equity, income, and expenses).

• Technical, legal, financial, and public relations problems associated with the management of financial services programs.

• Applicable federal, state, and local laws and Agency resolutions, policies, and procedures relevant to assigned area of responsibility.

• Methods and techniques for the development of presentations, contract negotiations, business correspondence, and information distribution; research and reporting methods, techniques, and procedures.

• Modern office practices, methods, and computer equipment and applications related to the work.

• English usage, spelling, vocabulary, grammar, and punctuation.

• Techniques for effectively representing the Agency in contacts with governmental agencies, community groups, and various business, professional, educational, regulatory, and legislative organizations.

• Techniques for providing a high level of customer service by effectively dealing with the public, vendors, contractors, and Agency staff.

VII. ABILITY TO:

Develop and implement goals, objectives, policies, procedures, work standards, and internal controls for the department and assigned program areas.

• Provide administrative and professional leadership and direction for the department and the Agency, demonstrating high ethics and integrity.

• Plan, organize, direct, and coordinate the work of management, supervisory, professional, and technical personnel, delegate authority and responsibility.

• Select, train, motivate, and evaluate the work of staff and train staff in work procedures.
• Research, analyze, and evaluate new service delivery methods, procedures, and techniques.

• Effectively administer a variety of financial programs and administrative activities.

• Interpret, apply, and explain federal, state, and local laws and regulations, and policies, procedures, and practices of financial administration.

• Conduct effective negotiations and effectively represent the Agency and the department in meetings with governmental agencies, contractors, vendors, and various businesses, professional, regulatory, and legislative organizations.

• Prepare clear and concise reports, correspondence, policies, procedures, and other written materials.

• Conduct complex research projects, evaluate alternatives, make sound recommendations, and prepare effective technical staff reports.

• Establish and maintain a variety of filing, record-keeping, and tracking systems.

• Ability to interact with upset staff and/or public and private representatives in interpreting and enforcing departmental policies and procedures.

• Organize and prioritize a variety of projects and multiple tasks in an effective and timely manner; organize own work, set priorities, and meet critical time deadlines.

• Operate modern office equipment including computer equipment and specialized software applications programs. Employees may interact with confused, angry, or upset staff and/or public and private representatives in interpreting and enforcing departmental policies and procedures.

• Ability to effectively communicate in person, over the telephone, and in writing.

• Use tact, initiative, prudence, and independent judgment within general policy, procedural, and legal guidelines.

• Establish, maintain, and foster positive and effective working relationships with those contacted in the course of work.

PCHA is an Equal Opportunity Employer and Equal Opportunity Housing Agency